

GOVERNOR (1985-1993 : BANGERTER) ^[446]

PRESS RELEASES, 1984-1992

2 cu. ft. and 4 microfilm reels

DESCRIPTION: These are press releases given to media sources to publicize the Governor's activities and opinions. Also included is documentation used to produce the releases such as letters of condolence, official decrees, and departmental reports. Many pieces of correspondence are included relating to the press release topic. When a state official resigns he is required to present a letter of resignation to the Governor; these are included, as are the Governor's responses.

Topics of the releases include: the appointment of judges and officials, announcements of new businesses in Utah, legislative announcements, and numerous official decrees designating such things as "Jim McMahon Day" and "Child Abuse Awareness Week". Of historical note is a copy of a letter sent by the Governor to Addam Swapp and Vicki Singer, principals in the standoff and shootout at Marion, Utah, and their responses. The letters accompany press releases on the topic in January 1988.

ARRANGEMENT: The arrangement is chronological. In a few cases material is not filed in chronological order; this occurred when the Governor's office placed related material together, however such occurrences are rare.

RELATED RECORDS: Series 10180, PRESS SECRETARY'S RECORDS, contains some additional material related to these press releases. Series 11903 NEWSCLIPPINGS contains the media published versions of these releases.

PROCESSING NOTE: This series was transferred to archival custody beginning in 1992. This series was processed by Gregory Lepore in March 1994. Microfilming was completed in June 1994.
